

1st International Conference of Possibility Studies

10 – 13 May 2021 / Online event

Registration link here

NOTE: The format of each session is a 15 minute talk by the invited speaker, a 15 minute breakout room discussion and 15 minutes for Q&A. ALL TIMES ARE IN CENTRAL EUROPEAN TIME

Monday May 10th

- 10:00 Vlad Glăveanu, Webster University Geneva, Switzerland: The possible: A sociocultural theory and its consequences
- 10:45 Andrea Gaggioli, Catholic University of the Sacred Heart, Italy: Transformative experience design: Exploring novel spaces of the self in the phygital era
- 11:30 Roberto Poli, University of Trento, Italy: What does it mean 'possible' in 'possible futures'?
- 12:15 Marie Taillard, ESCP Business School, UK: People-First Marketing and the possible

Tuesday May 11th

- 10:00 Possibility Café (one hour meeting on Gather, for whoever wants to discuss with other participants in an informal, coffee break-like context)
- 15:00 Giovanni Corazza, University of Bologna, Italy: The dynamic potential of imagining the impossible
- 15:45 Samantha Copeland, TU Delft, Netherlands: Serendipity and moral imagination: Generating possible futures by chance.
- 16:30 Ron Beghetto, Arizona State University, USA: Uncertain possibilities: New directions for creative learning

17:15 Roni Reiter-Palmon, University of Nebraska Omaha, USA: Using problem identification and construction to determine the possible

Wednesday May 12th

10:00 Bel Le Hunte, University of Technology Sydney, Australia: A virtual utopia – Liminal spaces for transformative learning

10:40 Anne (Dan) Harris, RMIT University, Australia: Cruising creativity and the end of utopia

11:30 Luis de Miranda, Uppsala University, Sweden: Crealectic intelligence: From absolute possibility to self-possibility

12:15 Gerard Puccio, SUNY at Buffalo, USA: Does problem solving in teams promote or undermine the production of possibilities?

16:00 Possibility Café (one hour meeting on Gather, for whoever wants to discuss with other participants in an informal, coffee break-like context)

Thursday May 13th

15:00 Pernille Hviid, University of Copenhagen, Denmark: Making schools – making families, dynamics in the process of gentrification

15:45 Frédéric Vallée-Tourangeau, Kingston University, UK: Object-thought mutualities in weaving the possible

16:30 Wendy Ross, London Metropolitan University, UK: Material agency and possibility

17:15 Roy F. Baumeister, University of Queensland, Australia. Psychology's task, the uselessness of determinism, and the multi-maybe future

18:00 Vlad Glăveanu: Summary and future plans
Followed by a Virtual Cocktail on Gather!